

Travel and Exploration

Key Texts

How have changes in travel helped exploration?

Timeline of Transport Inventions

aeroplane

1903

boat

bicycle

4000 BC

1817

train

car

1804

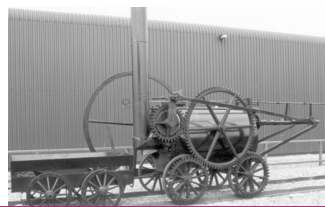

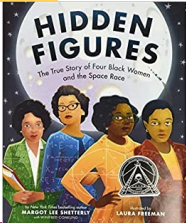

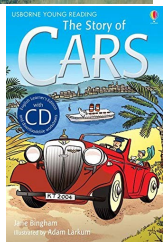

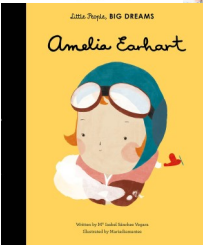

1886

first

spacecraft

travel

1961

Key Vocabulary and Key Explorers

travel—to go from one place to another exploration—travelling through an unknown place in order to learn about it invention—making something that does not exist

improvement—making something better

circumnavigate—to travel all the way around something timeline—important events arranged in order in which they happened

Clara Stinnes—first woman to circumnavigate the world by car.

Dervla Murphy—cycled from France to India by herself

Yuri Gagarin—first man to travel into space in 1961.

Sir Francis Drake—an English explorer who circumnavigated the world.

Isambard Kingdom Brunel—Chief Engineer to the Great Western Railway

Amelia Earhart—first female aviator to fly alone across the Atlantic Ocean.