INFORMATION SHARING AND CONSENT

During your child's time at the school you will be informed of how you, or your children's, information will be used and shared with other services or organisations. The joint sharing of information is vital for safeguarding and to ensure that the school provides an efficient and effective service. This includes working within Children Missing Education (CME) guidelines, data protection regulations, Admission & Transfer (A&T) processes and DfE guidelines.

We will usually seek your or your child's consent prior to processing or sharing information. If you or they object you must inform the school, however, if there is a legal reason, as outlined under the Data Protection Act, we may not require consent, for example:

- To protect a child, a vulnerable adult, or member of the public
- Where the disclosure is necessary for the purposes of the prevention and/or detection of crime.
- Tax or duty assessment
- Required by court or law

We will also need to share pupils' information with our partner organisations that support the delivery of the service pupils may receive. The information collected will be shared when appropriate with:

- Child Health Information Service (CHIS)
  - School Nursing Service
  - School immunisation Providers
- University Hospitals NHS Trust Orthoptic Team
- Families with a Future Programme
- Children, Young People & Family Service
- Schools that pupils attend after leaving us
- Our local authority

Consent is not sought in relation to sharing basic data (name, address, DOB) with the Child Health Information Service (CHIS) and University Hospitals NHS Trust Orthoptic Team as their use of the data is in the public interest as it directly benefits patient and public health. An opportunity to provide consent will be made available under the specific initiatives co-ordinated by the health care providers eg Child Measurement Programme, School Immunisations and Eye Test for 4 & 5 year old children.

Where we need to disclose sensitive or confidential information such as medical details to other partners, we will do so only with your or your child's prior explicit consent or where we are legally required to. We may disclose information when necessary to prevent risk of harm to an individual.

Withdrawal of consent

Where we are processing personal data with your or your child's consent, you or they have the right to withdraw that consent. If you change your mind, or you are unhappy with our use of your personal data, please let us know by contacting the School Administrator on 01752 343411 or by emailing admin@yfps.co.uk.

We do not share information about our pupils with anyone without consent unless the law and our policies allow us to do so.

We will only ever share information if we are satisfied that our partners or suppliers have sufficient measures in place to protect our pupil's information in the same way that we do.

We will never share personal information for marketing purposes.

RETENTION PERIODS

- We will not keep data for longer than we need it. Data will be retained in line with the Data asset register and retention schedule.
- Personal Data will be safely destroyed or deleted when it is no longer needed.

INDIVIDUAL RIGHTS REGARDING PERSONAL DATA

Under data protection legislation, parents and pupils have rights in relation to information about them that we hold.

You have the right:

- To be informed via Privacy Notices such as this;
- To ask us for access to information about you that we hold;
- To have your personal data rectified, if it is inaccurate or incomplete;
- To request the deletion or removal of personal data to prevent processing unless we have a legal obligation to process your personal information;
- To restrict our processing of your personal data (i.e. permitting its storage but no further processing);
- To data portability. We need to be able to provide you with your personal data in a structured, commonly used, machine readable form when asked;
- To object to direct marketing (including profiling) and processing for the purposes of scientific/historical research and statistics;
- Not to be subject to decisions based purely on automated processing where it produces a legal or similarly significant effect on you.

To make a request under any of your rights please refer to the 'Subject Rights Policy' Appendix 3 or contact the Data Protection Officer: dataprotectionofficer@plymouth.gov.uk

If you have a concern or complaint about the way we are collecting or using your personal data, you should raise your concern with us in the first instance or directly to the Information Commissioner's Office at <https://ico.org.uk/concerns/>

LAST UPDATED

We may need to update this privacy notice periodically so we recommend that you revisit this information from time to time. This version was last updated October 2019.
